

Brotherhoods Refuse To Cancel Order For Strike on Labor Day

Wilson Exerting Every Effort to Secure
Cancellation To Give Congress Time
To Rush Through Legislation

MANAGERS ACCEPTANCE SATISFACTORY

By Robert J. Bender.

Washington, Aug. 30.—(By United Press)—President Wilson today was exerting every effort to secure from the railroad brotherhood leaders a withdrawal of their strike order effective September 4. He feels confident that Congress will pass legislation such as demanded by the brotherhood. Administration officials have pointed out to the trainmen that they have nothing to gain by striking and have everything to lose.

In fact they say if the trainmen carry out their order it will occur about the time Congress passes the measure. Also a strike would turn sentiment against the unions. Thus far, however, the brotherhood officials have indicated no intention of rescinding their strike order. It is the hope and belief of administration officials that following the President's message yesterday there will be an immediate reaction on the part of the brotherhoods which will possibly delay any strike action by the employees until Congress has had time to pass legislation for it.

While the freight men are making the most demands the passenger men are included in the strike order. The reason that the passenger men do not make so stringent demands is that an eight hour day does not apply to them. Passenger service is paid by the mileage; on slow trains by a guaranteed system. The brotherhoods, however, will not allow President Wilson's legislative program to alter their determination to strike. Brotherhood men reiterated today that only the railroad executives' acceptance of an eight hour day—ten hours' pay—can head off the tie-up.

Nothing Can Avoid Strike.

President Wilson and Congress are doing everything in their power to secure the withdrawal of the brotherhood's strike order. Early this morning a prominent leader of the brotherhood said, "No power under heaven" could avoid a strike by the railroad executives. Other brotherhood chiefs are standing pat on the statement that they only have the power to avert a strike. The final conference between Wilson and the executives yesterday at the White House ended dramatically when President Wilson said, "God forgive you but I cannot."

A conference will be held tomorrow evening at 9:00 o'clock before the Senate Interstate Commerce committee at which all parties and persons interested will be heard. The brotherhood, railroad executives and shippers will be present and submit data. Three hours will be given to each group. Cities and small towns are scouring the country for material for conductors, yardmen and even for temporary engineers.

Attempt Ends in Fight.

The first formal effort of Congress to pass legislation to prevent a strike ended in a quarrel today when one of the leaders accused others of attempting to make political capital out of a desperate situation.

Prayer meeting will not be held as the Trinity M. E. Church this evening, all those who have been attending prayer meeting are requested to attend the Sabbath School institute, being held in the Presbyterian Church.

Quarantine Period For School Is Extended From Sept. 18 To Sept 29

Harrisburg, Aug. 30.—Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Health Commissioner of the state of Pennsylvania, announced this afternoon that he had extended the time for the schools of the state to open from the eighteenth to the twenty-ninth day of September on account of the infantile paralysis epidemic. This order affects not only the public schools but also the private and parochial schools and all Sunday schools and churches. No children under six years of age will be permitted

Clearfield People In Auto Accident

Mitchell Car Overturns Pining Occupants Under It.

Eight people had a narrow escape from death or serious injury when the James Mitchell car overturned on the hill above Curwensville, pinning the eight occupants under it. The party was returning from Bilger Rocks and when coming down the hill into Curwensville, the rim and tire of the left front wheel came off, swinging the car around and overturning it. All eight occupants were pinned under it but fortunately escaped with slight bruises and cuts.

The car was driven by Samuel Mitchell. The other occupants were Misses Mary Mitchell, Elizabeth Mitchell, Catherine Mitchell, Louise Wright and Agnes Weaver and Joseph Gemberling of Cynwood, John Cramer of Scottsdale. The accident occurred about seven o'clock.

TO TELL THE NEWS TO MR. FAIRBANKS

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 30.—Chas. W. Fairbanks is about to learn of the action of the Republican national convention at Chicago in nominating him for the office of vice president of the United States. The official notification ceremonies will be held tomorrow afternoon on the lawn of the Fairbanks residence. That the meeting will be the occasion for a rousing Republican campaign rally is indicated by the arrival of a large number of prominent party leaders in the city today. In addition to the members of the official notification committee those in attendance will include many well known Republicans from all sections of Indiana and from other states as well. The only formal addresses of the day will be the notification speech to be delivered by Senator L. Y. Sherman of Illinois and the address of acceptance by Mr. Fairbanks.

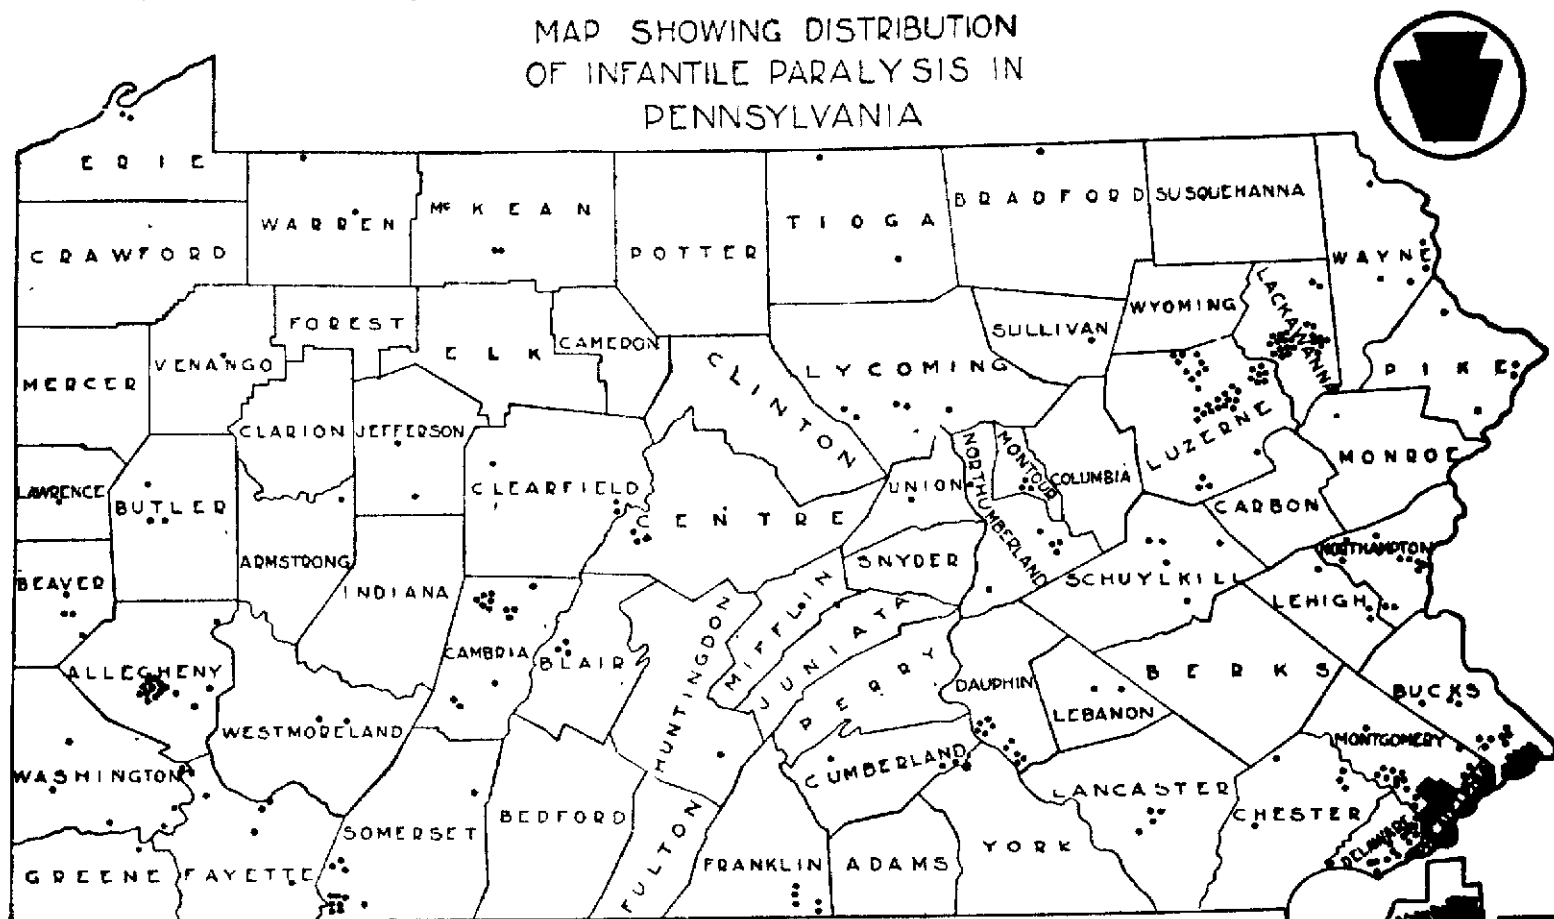

PENNSYLVANIA EXPOSITION.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 30.—An event of more than ordinary importance to the commercial and industrial interests of this section is the opening day of the twenty-eighth annual session of the Western Pennsylvania Exposition. The Federal government has contributed an elaborate display to the show this year and in every department the exhibits are up to the high standard set in previous years. The exhibition will continue until October 14. The period will include the week's celebration in honor of the Charter centennial, which fact is expected to largely increase the number of visitors from out of town.

CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL

Children under sixteen years of age will not be admitted to this institution as visitors while infantile paralysis is prevailing. This rule is made for the common good and I trust that the importance of observing it will be appreciated by all visitors to the hospital.

Mary A. Rothrock,
Superintendent.

A STUDY of the above map prepared by the State Department of Health shows a close relationship between the distribution of infantile paralysis in Pennsylvania and the direct lines of travel between this State and New York City, where the epidemic has reached large proportions. It is evident that those sections of the State which are in close contact through the intercourse of travel have by far the largest number of cases. This demonstrates the necessity for the quarantine which has been ordered to protect the children of the Commonwealth from the unfortunate fate of thousands in neighboring States.

Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon has asked the help of all thinking people in making this quarantine effective.

LOCAL TALENT WILL MAKE BIG HIT IN COMEDY

"Betty's Campaign" Will Be
Presented Two Nights
During This Week

FOR BENEFIT OF HOSPITAL

"Betty's Campaign," to be presented at the Opera House on Thursday and Friday nights of this week under the auspices of the Junior and Senior auxiliaries of the Clearfield hospital, will make the greatest hit of any home talent plays ever presented here. The play is a screaming musical comedy with a clever plot, filled with catchy musical numbers, dancing and many other specialties which will provoke a great deal of merriment and amusement.

The plot is laid in a second class city of Pennsylvania in 1950 when the women are ruling and men stay at home and care for the babies. Everything is topsy-turvy and the stumpy speeches of the women candidates are brimming over with original and sarcastic phrases. The play is a harmless and clever satire presenting a ridiculous political situation in 1950. It is not a satire on Woman's suffrage but is rather a burlesque, a funny movement called men's suffrage and poked in fun at the 1950 specimens of "men."

The cast and chorus of the play are made up entirely of local talent with the exception of the part of Betty which is played by Mr. T. Roy Innes, the director. Mr. Innes is a clever impersonator and with his phenomenal soprano voice and his graceful gestures will cause a storm of applause and will be the biggest surprise of the evening.

The cast is composed of over one hundred people, the best talent in Clearfield, many of whom have made hits in former home talent plays. Mrs. Philip Reed presents the part of Cal Jordan, candidate for mayor and she is a scream. Tom Wallace makes a hit as Johnny, a hen pecked husband who finally comes to see the light of reason and turns for men's suffrage. Bowman Weaver plays the part of Jerry in wonderful style and in several tender love scenes scores a big hit. Dorothy Woodward makes an ideal political boss and takes the part of Kate Graft in unexcelled style. Her poor, snarled former sweetheart, played by Staymen Reed, spills everything for the political intriguers.

A special feature of the play will be the fancy dancing of Miss Ruby Hale White of Philipsburg who is well known here. Miss White is a pupil in the Castle school of New York and is an exceptionally artistic dancer. Her act will be a treat for all Clearfield who should turn out to show appreciation for her favor to dance for the benefit of the hospital. Other special features will be the "Bubble Chorus" in which twenty young ladies dance and sing; the "Rockable Moon" lullaby composed by Mr. Innes for this occasion and performed by twelve young ladies; "The Pretty Officer" burlesque, a double sextette.

"Betty's Campaign" will be presented at the Opera House on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week for the benefit of the Clearfield hospital. The ladies of the two auxiliaries are working night and main in an effort to help this worthy institution and in presenting this clever farce they feel they will not only give the public an opportunity to assist the hospital but will be afforded two nights of the keenest enjoyment—as "Betty's Campaign" is without doubt worth every cent expended and is the cleverest home talent play ever presented.

BABIES RULE BEACH.

Asbury Park, N. J., Aug. 30.—Asbury Park's twenty-seventh annual baby parade was held today and was the greatest pageant of its kind that has ever taken place at this famous resort. The beach and board walk was a solid mass of humanity assembled from all parts of the United States to witness the event. Conservative estimates place the number of spectators at close to 200,000. Along the line of march there were elaborate decorations, with the national colors and hunting, and the baby coaches, bicycles, floats, automobiles and fire engines that were in the parade were also garnished with flags and flowers. The infant light artillery was of quiet order, and went through the grand parade without a murmur. At the conclusion of the pageant hundreds of prizes were distributed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION IN SESSION HERE

Over One Hundred Delegates
From All Parts of County
Are In Attendance

HELD IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The forty second annual convention of the Clearfield County Sabbath School Association went in to session in the Presbyterian church in Clearfield yesterday afternoon for a two days' gathering. Over one hundred and twenty five delegates, ministers and church officers are in attendance and are showing a great deal of interest in the work being carried on. Many prominent speakers of the county are speaking on the most important questions which arise in carrying on the regular work in the Sabbath schools of the county.

The entertainment committee of which Cecil R. Bloom, assistant superintendent of the Presbyterian church, is chairman of boarding and lodging places among the church members of town for all visiting delegates and are taking care of them in other ways. Arrangements for the convention were made by the general committee of which B. M. Fast is chairman.

The convention was opened yesterday afternoon at two o'clock with devotional exercises which were followed by greeting and suggestions by H. A. Reed, president of the association. In a few well chosen remarks, Mr. Reed opened up the convention and made all the delegates feel at home and gave suggestions which will be useful during the convention. The convention keynote was given by Rev. O. B. Poulson, one of the most active workers in the county.

A state worker gave a very interesting as well as instructive address on the work throughout the state and during his talk gave much valuable advice about carrying on the work in the county. This was followed by the question period which was open to all. "Preparation" was the subject dealt with and concerned pastors, superintendents, officers, teachers and scholars. Questions were asked about how to increase Sunday school efficiency and were answered by many delegates in many ways. This was a most interesting part of the gathering.

Last evening Rev. C. W. Maus of Winbarn and another state worker were the principal speakers. Their address on Sunday school work was instructive and contained many valuable pointers for carrying on the work in different communities. This morning's session started at 9 o'clock with devotional exercises.

lowed by ten minute's talk by elementary, missionary and home department superintendents, on their work and certain troubles which had arisen in their department. Timely Temperance Tidings was the subject of an address by Rev. C. W. Hatch, an active temperance worker of the county. N. E. Shimmel spoke on the county survey which is one of the most important departments of the Sabbath school work.

Rev. O. B. Poulson spoke on "Our fields as seen by our chief farmer."

This evening's program:
7:30—Prayer and song service.
8:00—Address by Rev. Howard Campbell, D. D., on Siam.

LOCAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

The Susquehanna College of Music will open its 11th year on Monday, September 4th, 1916 to private pupils only on account of the recent decision of the Board of Health. There will be no ensemble practice until later.

The fine new building, 308 Locust street, has been thoroughly renovated and is in fine condition.

The personnel of the faculty is the same as last year: H. Clark Thayer, vocal, piano and theory; Miss Martha B. James, piano and sight reading; Margaret Myers Patterson, violin; Miss Maud Fletcher, elocution and dramatic expression.

These teachers are all specialists in their respective lines and employ the most thorough, scientific, systematic and practical methods along the broadest possible lines, insuring the pupils the best training obtainable.

The enrollment books are now open and pupils should register as early as possible in order to insure desirable lesson hours.

Roumanian Troops Crossing Red Tower Pass--Capture Hermannstade

By Ed. L. Keen.
London, Aug. 30.—(By United Press)—Roumanian troops are crossing the Red Tower pass and have captured the Transylvania city, Hermannstade, according to Bucharest dispatches this afternoon. Red Tower pass is three miles inside of the Transylvanian border. Advances from Berlin said that two Roumanian detachments were jeopardizing the Austrian position.

ELIHU ROOT FOR WEEDING OUT OF LAWYERS

Tells American Bar Association
There are too Many Who are
Grossly Incompetent

ADMISSION TO BAR TOO EASY

Chicago, Aug. 30.—President Elihu Root of the American Bar Association pleaded for a weeding out of the unnecessary and incompetent among the 114,000 lawyers in the United States in his annual address at the opening of the meeting of that organization here today.

"It is true of American people generally," said Mr. Root, "that too many of us have been trying to get something out of the country and too few of us have been trying to serve it."

Having his plea for efficiency in the administration of the law upon the statement that we must get down to brass tacks in all our affairs if we're going to keep pace with Europe after the war, Mr. Root flayed our "cumbersome machinery of justice" and called upon lawyers to forget their selfishness and give the country a little service not only in law administration but in law making.

He said that as a rule only the youngest and least experienced lawyers get into the law making bodies, local, state and national. Concerning the law and lawyers, Mr. Root said in part: "There is great economic waste in the administration of the law in state and nation. We spend vast sums building court houses, paying judges, clerks and others and the product in justice is disproportionate to the plant and working force. There is no country in the world where the doing of justice is burdened by such heavy overhead charges. It all causes an enormous waste of time on the part of witnesses, jury panel and parties."

"The ease with which admission to the bar is secured in many jurisdictions and the attraction of a career which affords a living without manual labor has crowded the Bar with more lawyers than are necessary. Of the 114,000 lawyers in the United States a very considerable part are not needed. If that business were conducted like the business of any great industrial or transportation company which is striving for the highest efficiency at the least cost in order to compete successfully with its rivals, a very considerable percentage of the 114,000 would be discharged."

"Why do these defects exist in our administration of justice? The American people are not quarrelsome or litigious. They are good natured, practical, simple and direct in their methods, respectful of law and honest in their dealings. Our Bar as a whole is courageous, loyal and true and able. I think the underlying cause is that unconsciously we all treat the business of administering justice as something to be done for private benefit instead of for the public service."

Mr. Root admitted that our back law should be re-drafted but, he added, none but a prophet or seer could do it and none such was available. Committees on judicial reform will report tomorrow morning and Mr. Root's address may form part of the basis of these reports.

Stephen S. Gregory, of Illinois, former president of the association, will preside at the evening session today. Former President Frederick W. Lehmann of Missouri will preside tomorrow morning and former President Henry St. George Tucker of Virginia tomorrow evening.

The meeting will close with the annual dinner of the association Friday night.

IN SUITS.

there are the plain tailored effects, the outing or sports designs and the dressier models.

Jackets are either single or double breasted. In many of them there is a pronounced flare or ripple below the waist.

The sport or outing models have simple sleeves and pleats or belts at waist line.

Some of the dressier models have large collars that either button close or lie flat, giving the shoulder cape effect. High collars, fancy flaring cuffs and partial belts are other features to be found in the new suits. Price range of suits from $12.00 to $35.00.

IN COATS.

A wide range of types make the coats for Fall interesting to every figure. In the coats as in the suits are three approved types. The loose coats with sweeping fullness, large roomy sleeves and generous cuffs and collars. Then the belted type hanging full and loose in the back. Some are belted only in the back and others all around. This type also has the large cuffs and collars.

The third type of coat hangs straight and loose from the shoulders giving the graceful long line from the waist down.

Buttons large and small and fur trimmings are seen in both coats and suits.

Price range of coats are from $5 to $30.

LEITZINGER BROTHERS

THE CHAMPION RED SOX.

It was freely predicted in the early season that without the services of Tris Speaker the Red Sox would fail to get anywhere. But the Carrigans knew that predictions didn't secure pennants so they started out to win enough games to turn the trick.

The pitching of Ernie Shore, called "The Shore Line to Pennantville," has been gilded this season. Barring accident, Shore should prove a world beater from now on to the grand finale.

During the fifteen years Boston has been in the American league its team has won four pennants and three world's championships. The team has won every world's series in which it has taken part.

In 1906 the Red Sox established an American league record by losing 20 consecutive games.

The Red Sox have finished in the cellar but once and in the second division only three times. They finished last in 1906, seventh in 1907 and fifth in 1908.

Season records indicate that the Red Sox are weak in batting, run-getting and base stealing. This three ply weakness, however, has not prevented the Carrigans from setting the pace in the pennant scramble.

The Red Sox share with the Athletics the record of the longest game ever played in the major leagues. On September 1, 1906, the two teams battled 24 innings before the Athletics finally won the contest by a vote of 4 to 1.

Third Baseman Larry Gardner is the only member of the Red Sox who is batting with the 200 set of American league wallpops.

Harry Hooper the brilliant Red Sox guarder leads the team in both run getting and base-stealing. Hooper is the only Sox among the first fifteen American leaguers in both run gettings and base-stealing.

Jack Barry is the leading new player with the Carrigans. Barry has been a member of five different winning teams—four in Philadelphia and one in Boston.

Manager Bill Carrigan joined the Red Sox in 1906. The next year he was sent to Toronto and in 1908 was recalled by the Sox. He succeeded Jake Stahl as manager of the team July 25, 1910.

After the concluding game with the Browns in Boston on August 31, the Red Sox will start on their final trip around the Eastern and Western circuits, returning to Boston on September 27 for the opening of the season, four with the Yankees and three with the Athletics.

The Red Sox are generally credited with possessing the greatest pitching staff in the American league. Shore, Ruth, Mays, Leonard and Foster form a twirling staff second to none in big league company.

Nine managers have held the Red Sox reins since the team broke into the American league fifteen years ago. The list includes Jimmy Collins, "Chick" Stahl, Bob Unglaub, Jim McGuire, George Huff, Fred Lake, Pat Donovan, J. G. (Jake) Stahl, and Bill Carrigan.

PICKINGS RATHER SLIM FOR SCOUTS THIS YEAR

By Hamilton.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Aug. 30.—With races in the big leagues fast drawing to a close managers are looking toward prospects for next year, with the class of new playing talent picked up in the minors holding an important place.

Every year word comes to the east of phenomenal ball players in the minors. Usually these are taken up, and sometimes they make good. More often than not, however, they are sent back. This year, perhaps more than any recent season, there is a dearth of good playing talent in the minors.

Purchases up to the present have been very few and only players of extraordinary ability have been picked off by the scouts. Some of these already have reported while others are being held for delivery at the opening of the training season next year.

The big minors, the American association, the International league and the Pacific Coast league will supply the greatest amount of real material, as usual. In the lower leagues the percentage of ball players who look promising is remarkably low.

In the American association, there are a number of ball players who look like real finds. Among these is pitcher Nick Carter, purchased from Indianapolis by the Cubs for early delivery. Carter is a big right hander who was held by the Cleveland Americans at the beginning of the season.

applies with hardly a trial. He was the best pitcher in the association this year.

Outfielder Josh Kell was another Indianapolis player taken by the Cubs and there is a probability that Pitcher Victor Aldridge of the Indians also will be snapped up.

Kansas City has sent Chuck Wortman to the Cubs, Jimmy Middleton, former hurler for Louisville, has been sent to the Giants, and Infielder Joe Leonard of the Columbus club has reported to Cleveland.

Minneapolis and Washington are carrying on their usual exchange with a trial for Earl Yindling and Mike Menosky being assured. Mike Regan, star hurler for Kansas City, is certain to make a trip to the majors, and Pitcher Pierce of Toledo may get another chance.

In the Coast league there is a wealth of good material. Portland offers Willie and Southworth, outfielders; Louis Gusto, first baseman, and Allen Sothron, pitcher. Gusto has been sold to Cleveland. Oakland has Martin, a pitcher. Salt Lake has First Baseman Bunny Brief and Pitcher Fittery. Los Angeles offers Catcher Bassler, Pitcher Horstmann and Outfielder Wolter.

Vernon has three stars in Infielders McGaffigan, Risberg and Bates. Of the trio McGaffigan is the least likely to go. He is an excellent fielder, but his disposition on the diamond handicaps him greatly.

The International league is mainly populated with players from the majors under optional agreement. A large number of these, including Urban Shocker, sensational Toronto hurler, have been recalled. In fact Donovan almost wrecked several clubs by recalling many of his youngsters when the Yankees were so badly crippled. Howard Ehmke is certain to be given a thorough trial, as is Pitcher McGigue. Ehmke will go to Detroit.

Paddy Sign and Jimmie Smith, two Pirate farmhands, remarkable fielders but poor stickers, will have another chance.

President Wilson and Mr. Hughes have been invited to address the convention, considered the most important ever called in the suffrage history of the country. Its specific purpose is to determine the political policy which the National Woman Suffrage Association—a strictly non-partisan body—will follow during the coming fall campaign.

GERMAN BAPTISTS AT DETROIT.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 30.—The triennial general conference of the German Baptist churches of North America opened here today with a good attendance, those present including delegates from many parts of the United States and Canada, together with prominent mission workers from foreign fields. The conference meets in the Woodland Avenue Baptist church, with the Rev. L. Kaiser, of the Rochester Theological Baptist seminary, presiding as moderator. The sessions will continue until September 5. The program is exhaustive, embracing all departments of the work of the denomination with liberal time designated for reports from missionary and evangelical work. One of the important matters scheduled for consideration is the decision regarding the location for the new orphan asylum which is now at Louisville, Ky. St. Joseph, Mich., appears to be the choice of the majority of the delegates as the location for the institution.

Mrs. J. K. Murray of Le Contes Mills was shopping in town today.

G. E. Beauseigneur of Le Contes Mills attended to business in town yesterday.

Miss Flora Mauer left this morning to spend her vacation with friends in Somerset.

Mrs. James B. Graham and daughter Margaret of Bigler are attending the Sunday school convention.

CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. F. C. Whitlock, leaves today for her home in Elkton, Md., after spending five weeks with her daughter, Mrs. James S. Stover, on Meadow street.

Miss Bessie Clark, daughter of Policeman Clark, is taking in the sights at Niagara Falls and other towns along the lakes.

Mrs. Amanda A. Laing and her sister, Mrs. Amelia Meis, who lives at West Decatur, will leave Thursday for a visit with relatives at Morgantown, W. Va. Their visit will extend into the middle of September.

Paul Robison left yesterday morning for Philadelphia and will remain in the city of "Brotherly Love" until about the middle of next week.

Mrs. Wm. Holden, Miss Lou, her daughter, and son William, returned home Monday from a week's visit in Pittsburgh, Wilkesburg and other towns in close proximity to the "Smoky City." The family enjoyed their outing to its fullest extent.

A six cylinder Buick auto turned upside down on the Grampian road last evening, when about half way up the hill. There were six persons in the car, but fortunately all escaped without injury. The car was righted and the occupants went on their way rejoicing that they escaped so luckily.

Street Commissioner Strunk is hard at work constructing a good, substantial sidewalk from the foot of the hill along the Grampian road, an improvement that was greatly needed by pedestrians who wended their way in that direction.

Once again the unseen hand, Death, has entered this community and taken from a home a beloved wife, in the person of Mrs. Vada Hummel, wife of Alton Hummel, whose spirit took flight from its earthly tabernacle on Monday night at 12:20 o'clock at her home on Irvin Hill, surrounded as she was by those who loved her. Mrs. Hummel was taken to Clearfield hospital early last week, but as the physicians there saw no hope for her, she was brought home last Saturday and provided with every comfort until the end. Deceased was the second daughter of Taylor and Annie Bloom, and was born near Bloomington, in Pike township, September 26th, 1876. She was married to Alton Hummel in December, 1890 and they went to house keeping out on the farm now owned by Samuel Norris, but after a few years they removed to the house in which she resided at the time she was called from. Her husband was called from her side on the 28th of August.

erlasting life to come. Early in life she enrolled her name as a member of the Presbyterian church at Pine Grove. She leaves a loving husband, who provided every comfort for her that was within his power. Her father and mother, and one sister survive to mourn her loss. The funeral will be held from the home on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Max Lantz, of the M. E. church, officiating. Interment will be made in Bloomington cemetery in the family plot.

WOOLGROWERS IN SESSION.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 30.—An exhibition and sale of half a million dollars' worth of wools is to feature the fifty-third annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' association, which assembled in this city today.

Several thousand picked animals are to be offered at public auction, including representatives from the ranges of England, Austria, New Zealand, South America, Canada and the United States.

The business sessions of the convention will continue several days. A wide variety of problems affecting the sheepmen from the best represented parts of the country will be discussed. Just how different ranges are adapted to particular kinds of sheep will be determined and the best ways of grazing, wintering, shearing and dipping will be brought out. Methods of marketing sheep products, railroad tariffs and shipping rates also will be discussed.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND VETERANS MARCH IN KANSAS CITY TODAY

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 30.—Fifteen thousand grizzled fighters of the Civil War marched over the downtown section today in the annual Grand Army of the Republic parade.

With a score of fife and drum corps bending time and brass bands playing national airs, the gray haired veterans moved slowly over the line which included many hills.

The streets were thronged with spectators who cheered each state contingent as it passed and the veterans doffed their hats and saluted almost continuously.

W. F. Calhoun, commander of the Department of Illinois, and his state organization headed the procession, followed by the Wisconsin and Pennsylvania Departments. The Ohio and New York veterans were next in line. Then followed the Southern and the Western Departments. Missouri brought up the rear.

As the parade swung into Main street there were many stragglers but they fought bravely to pass on in review before their commander in chief, Elias R. Manford of Cincinnati, and his staff and city officials who occupied the reviewing stand.

Mrs. J. T. Straw spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Stewart Williams of Monmouth.

Mrs. Hobart Callahan entertained at five hundred on Thursday afternoon at her home on Reed street in honor of Mrs. Chester Heller and Mrs. Frank Grundy of Jersey City.

Marion Leroy Burton, president of Smith College, born at Brooklyn, Pa., 42 years ago today.

Thomas G. Seaton, pitcher of the Chicago National league baseball team, born at Blair, Neb., 27 years ago today.

Brotherhoods Refuse To Cancel Order For Strike on Labor Day

Wilson Exerting Every Effort to Secure
Cancellation To Give Congress Time
To Rush Through Legislation

MANAGERS ACCEPTANCE SATISFACTORY

By Robert J. Bender.

Washington, Aug. 30.—(By United Press)—President Wilson today was exerting every effort to secure from the railroad brotherhood leaders a withdrawal of their strike order effective September 4. He feels confident that Congress will pass legislation such as demanded by the brotherhood. Administration officials have pointed out to the trainmen that they have nothing to gain by striking and have everything to lose.

In fact they say if the trainmen carry out their order it will occur about the time Congress passes the measure. Also a strike would turn sentiment against the unions. Thus far, however, the brotherhood officials have indicated no intention of rescinding their strike order. It is the hope and belief of administration officials that following the President's message yesterday there will be an immediate reaction on the part of the brotherhoods which will possibly delay any strike action by the employees until Congress has had time to pass legislation for it.

While the freight men are making the most demands the passenger men are included in the strike order. The reason that the passenger men do not make so stringent demands is that an eight hour day does not apply to them. Passenger service is paid by the mileage; on slow trains by a guaranteed system. The brotherhoods, however, will not allow President Wilson's legislative program to alter their determination to strike. Brotherhood men reiterated today that only the railroad executives' acceptance of an eight hour day—ten hours' pay—can head off the tie-up.

Nothing Can Avoid Strike.

President Wilson and Congress are doing everything in their power to secure the withdrawal of the brotherhood's strike order. Early this morning a prominent leader of the brotherhood said, "No power under heaven" could avoid a strike by the railroad executives. Other brotherhood chiefs are standing pat on the statement that they only have the power to avert a strike. The final conference between Wilson and the executives yesterday at the White House ended dramatically when President Wilson said, "God forgive you but I cannot."

A conference will be held tomorrow evening at 9:00 o'clock before the Senate Interstate Commerce committee at which all parties and persons interested will be heard. The brotherhood, railroad executives and shippers will be present and submit data. Three hours will be given to each group. Cities and small towns are scouring the country for material for conductors, yardmen and even for temporary engineers.

Attempt Ends in Fight.

The first formal effort of Congress to pass legislation to prevent a strike ended in a quarrel today when one of the leaders accused others of attempting to make political capital out of a desperate situation.

Prayer meeting will not be held as the Trinity M. E. Church this evening, all those who have been attending prayer meeting are requested to attend the Sabbath School institute, being held in the Presbyterian Church.

Quarantine Period For School Is Extended From Sept. 18 To Sept 29

Harrisburg, Aug. 30.—Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Health Commissioner of the state of Pennsylvania, announced this afternoon that he had extended the time for the schools of the state to open from the eighteenth to the twenty-ninth day of September on account of the infantile paralysis epidemic. This order affects not only the public schools but also the private and parochial schools and all Sunday schools and churches. No children under six years of age will be permitted

Clearfield People In Auto Accident

Mitchell Car Overturns Pining Occupants Under It.

Eight people had a narrow escape from death or serious injury when the James Mitchell car overturned on the hill above Curwensville, pinning the eight occupants under it. The party was returning from Bilger Rocks and when coming down the hill into Curwensville, the rim and tire of the left front wheel came off, swinging the car around and overturning it. All eight occupants were pinned under it but fortunately escaped with slight bruises and cuts.

The car was driven by Samuel Mitchell. The other occupants were Misses Mary Mitchell, Elizabeth Mitchell, Catherine Mitchell, Louise Wright and Agnes Weaver and Joseph Gemberling of Cynwood, John Cramer of Scottsdale. The accident occurred about seven o'clock.

TO TELL THE NEWS TO MR. FAIRBANKS

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 30.—Chas. W. Fairbanks is about to learn of the action of the Republican national convention at Chicago in nominating him for the office of vice president of the United States. The official notification ceremonies will be held tomorrow afternoon on the lawn of the Fairbanks residence. That the meeting will be the occasion for a rousing Republican campaign rally is indicated by the arrival of a large number of prominent party leaders in the city today. In addition to the members of the official notification committee those in attendance will include many well known Republicans from all sections of Indiana and from other states as well. The only formal addresses of the day will be the notification speech to be delivered by Senator L. Y. Sherman of Illinois and the address of acceptance by Mr. Fairbanks.

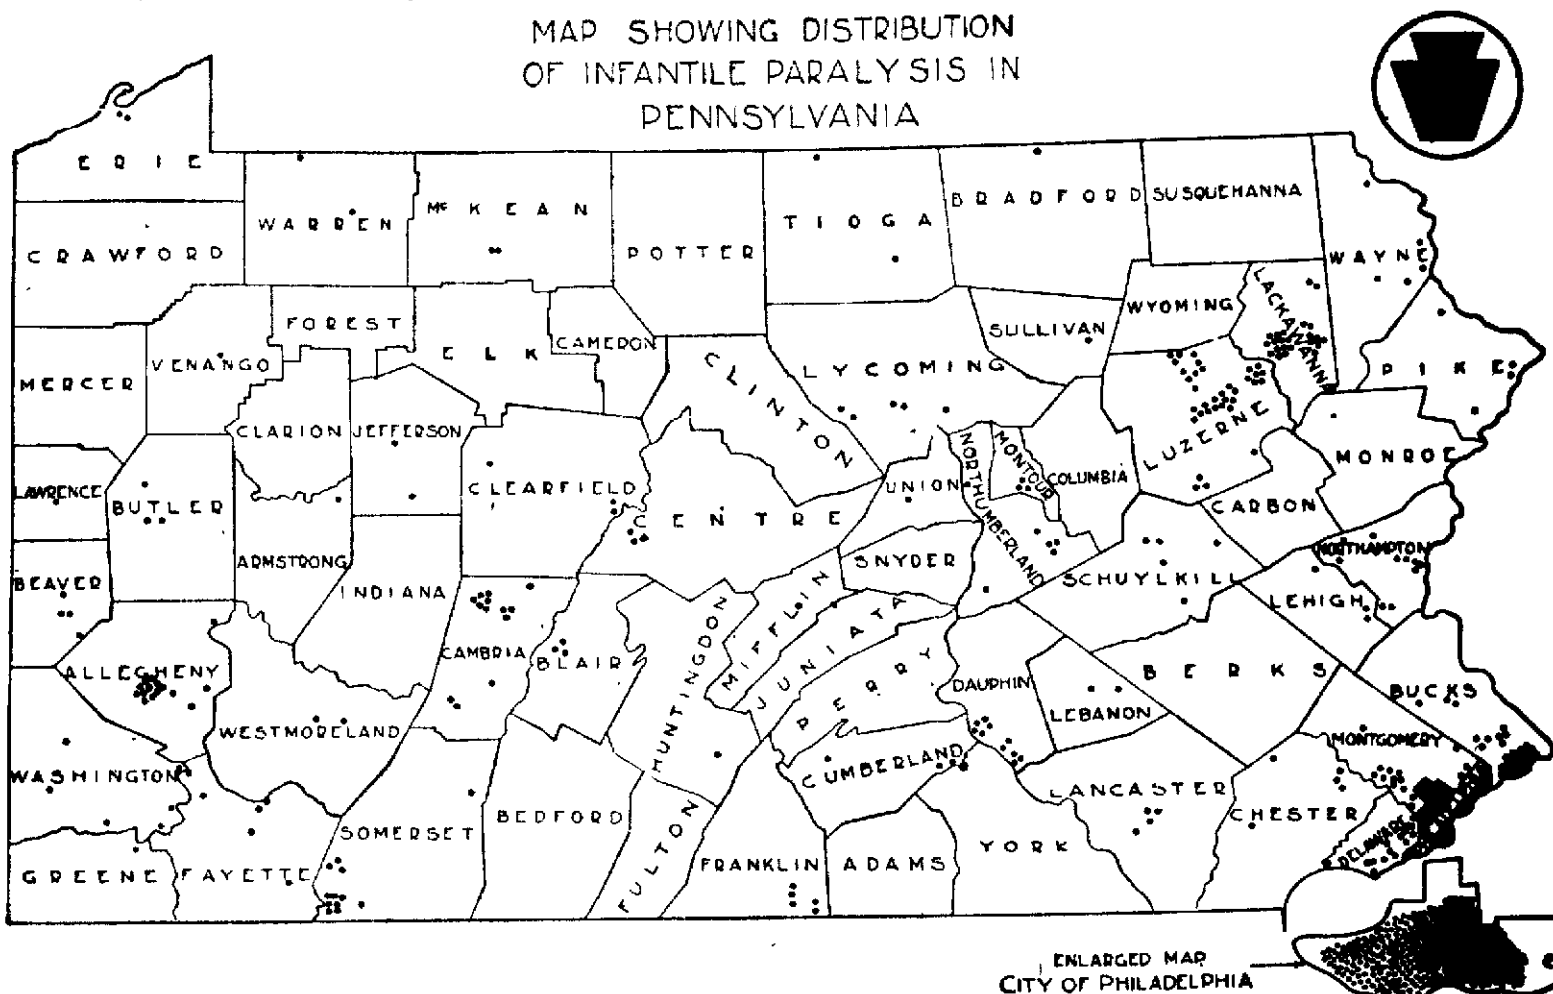

PENNSYLVANIA EXPOSITION.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 30.—An event of more than ordinary importance to the commercial and industrial interests of this section is the opening day of the twenty-eighth annual session of the Western Pennsylvania Exposition. The Federal government has contributed an elaborate display to the show this year and in every department the exhibits are up to the high standard set in previous years. The exhibition will continue until October 14. The period will include the week's celebration in honor of the Charter centennial, which fact is expected to largely increase the number of visitors from out of town.

CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL

Children under sixteen years of age will not be admitted to this institution as visitors while infantile paralysis is prevailing. This rule is made for the common good and I trust that the importance of observing it will be appreciated by all visitors to the hospital.

Mary A. Rothrock,
Superintendent.

A STUDY of the above map prepared by the State Department of Health shows a close relationship between the distribution of infantile paralysis in Pennsylvania and the direct lines of travel between this State and New York City, where the epidemic has reached large proportions. It is evident that those sections of the State which are in close contact through the intercourse of travel have by far the largest number of cases. This demonstrates the necessity for the quarantine which has been ordered to protect the children of the Commonwealth from the unfortunate fate of thousands in neighboring States.

Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon has asked the help of all thinking people in making this quarantine effective.

LOCAL TALENT WILL MAKE BIG HIT IN COMEDY

"Betty's Campaign" Will Be
Presented Two Nights
During This Week

FOR BENEFIT OF HOSPITAL

"Betty's Campaign," to be presented at the Opera House on Thursday and Friday nights of this week under the auspices of the Junior and Senior auxiliaries of the Clearfield hospital, will make the greatest hit of any home talent plays ever presented here. The play is a screaming musical comedy with a clever plot, filled with catchy musical numbers, dancing and many other specialties which will provoke a great deal of merriment and amusement.

The plot is laid in a second class city of Pennsylvania in 1950 when the women are ruling and men stay at home and care for the babies. Everything is topsy-turvy and the stumpy speeches of the women candidates are brimming over with original and sarcastic phrases. The play is a harmless and clever satire presenting a ridiculous political situation in 1950. It is not a satire on Woman's suffrage but is rather a burlesque, a funny movement called men's suffrage and poked in fun at the 1950 specimens of "men."

The cast and chorus of the play are made up entirely of local talent with the exception of the part of Betty which is played by Mr. T. Roy Innes, the director. Mr. Innes is a clever impersonator and with his phenomenal soprano voice and his graceful gestures will cause a storm of applause and will be the biggest surprise of the evening.

The cast is composed of over one hundred people, the best talent in Clearfield, many of whom have made hits in former home talent plays. Mrs. Philip Reed presents the part of Cal Jordan, candidate for mayor and she is a scream. Tom Wallace makes a hit as Johnny, a hen pecked husband who finally comes to see the light of reason and turns for men's suffrage. Bowman Weaver plays the part of Jerry in wonderful style and in several tender love scenes scores a big hit. Dorothy Woodward makes an ideal political boss and takes the part of Kate Graft in unexcelled style. Her poor, snarled former sweetheart, played by Staymen Reed, spills everything for the political intriguers.

A special feature of the play will be the fancy dancing of Miss Ruby Hale White of Philipsburg who is well known here. Miss White is a pupil in the Castle school of New York and is an exceptionally artistic dancer. Her act will be a treat for all Clearfield who should turn out to show appreciation for her favor to dance for the benefit of the hospital. Other special features will be the "Bubble Chorus" in which twenty young ladies dance and sing; the "Rockable Moon" lullaby composed by Mr. Innes for this occasion and performed by twelve young ladies; "The Pretty Officer" burlesque, a double sextette.

"Betty's Campaign" will be presented at the Opera House on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week for the benefit of the Clearfield hospital. The ladies of the two auxiliaries are working night and main in an effort to help this worthy institution and in presenting this clever farce they feel they will not only give the public an opportunity to assist the hospital but will be afforded two nights of the keenest enjoyment—as "Betty's Campaign" is without doubt worth every cent expended and is the cleverest home talent play ever presented.

BABIES RULE BEACH.

Asbury Park, N. J., Aug. 30.—Asbury Park's twenty-seventh annual baby parade was held today and was the greatest pageant of its kind that has ever taken place at this famous resort. The beach and board walk was a solid mass of humanity assembled from all parts of the United States to witness the event. Conservative estimates place the number of spectators at close to 200,000. Along the line of march there were elaborate decorations, with the national colors and hunting, and the baby coaches, bicycles, floats, automobiles and fire engines that were in the parade were also garnished with flags and flowers. The infant light artillery was of quiet order, and went through the grand parade without a murmur. At the conclusion of the pageant hundreds of prizes were distributed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION IN SESSION HERE

Over One Hundred Delegates
From All Parts of County
Are In Attendance

HELD IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The forty second annual convention of the Clearfield County Sabbath School Association went in to session in the Presbyterian church in Clearfield yesterday afternoon for a two days' gathering. Over one hundred and twenty five delegates, ministers and church officers are in attendance and are showing a great deal of interest in the work being carried on. Many prominent speakers of the county are speaking on the most important questions which arise in carrying on the regular work in the Sabbath schools of the county.

The entertainment committee of which Cecil R. Bloom, assistant superintendent of the Presbyterian church, is chairman of boarding and lodging places among the church members of town for all visiting delegates and are taking care of them in other ways. Arrangements for the convention were made by the general committee of which B. M. Fast is chairman.

The convention was opened yesterday afternoon at two o'clock with devotional exercises which were followed by greeting and suggestions by H. A. Reed, president of the association. In a few well chosen remarks, Mr. Reed opened up the convention and made all the delegates feel at home and gave suggestions which will be useful during the convention. The convention keynote was given by Rev. O. B. Poulson, one of the most active workers in the county.

A state worker gave a very interesting as well as instructive address on the work throughout the state and during his talk gave much valuable advice about carrying on the work in the county. This was followed by the question period which was open to all. "Preparation" was the subject dealt with and concerned pastors, superintendents, officers, teachers and scholars. Questions were asked about how to increase Sunday school efficiency and were answered by many delegates in many ways. This was a most interesting part of the gathering.

Last evening Rev. C. W. Maus of Winbarn and another state worker were the principal speakers. Their address on Sunday school work was instructive and contained many valuable pointers for carrying on the work in different communities. This morning's session started at 9 o'clock with devotional exercises.

lowed by ten minute's talk by elementary, missionary and home department superintendents, on their work and certain troubles which had arisen in their department. Timely Temperance Tidings was the subject of an address by Rev. C. W. Hatch, an active temperance worker of the county. N. E. Shimmel spoke on the county survey which is one of the most important departments of the Sabbath school work.

Rev. O. B. Poulson spoke on "Our fields as seen by our chief farmer."

This evening's program:
7:30—Prayer and song service.
8:00—Address by Rev. Howard Campbell, D. D., on Siam.

LOCAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

The Susquehanna College of Music will open its 11th year on Monday, September 4th, 1916 to private pupils only on account of the recent decision of the Board of Health. There will be no ensemble practice until later.

The fine new building, 308 Locust street, has been thoroughly renovated and is in fine condition.

The personnel of the faculty is the same as last year: H. Clark Thayer, vocal, piano and theory; Miss Martha B. James, piano and sight reading; Margaret Myers Patterson, violin; Miss Maud Fletcher, elocution and dramatic expression.

These teachers are all specialists in their respective lines and employ the most thorough, scientific, systematic and practical methods along the broadest possible lines, insuring the pupils the best training obtainable.

The enrollment books are now open and pupils should register as early as possible in order to insure desirable lesson hours.

Roumanian Troops Crossing Red Tower Pass--Capture Hermannstade

By Ed. L. Keen.

London, Aug. 30.—(By United Press)—Roumanian troops are crossing the Red Tower pass and have captured the Transylvania city, Hermannstade, according to Bucharest dispatches this afternoon. Red Tower pass is three miles inside of the Transylvanian border. Advances from Berlin said that two Roumanian detachments were jeopardizing the Austrian position.

ELIHU ROOT FOR WEEDING OUT OF LAWYERS

Tells American Bar Association
There are too Many Who are
Grossly Incompetent

ADMISSION TO BAR TOO EASY

Chicago, Aug. 30.—President Elihu Root of the American Bar Association pleaded for a weeding out of the unnecessary and incompetent among the 114,000 lawyers in the United States in his annual address at the opening of the meeting of that organization here today.

"It is true of American people generally," said Mr. Root, "that too many of us have been trying to get something out of the country and too few of us have been trying to serve it."

Having his plea for efficiency in the administration of the law upon the statement that we must get down to brass tacks in all our affairs if we're going to keep pace with Europe after the war, Mr. Root flayed our "cumbersome machinery of justice" and called upon lawyers to forget their selfishness and give the country a little service not only in law administration but in law making.

He said that as a rule only the youngest and least experienced lawyers get into the law making bodies, local, state and national. Concerning the law and lawyers, Mr. Root said in part: "There is great economic waste in the administration of the law in state and nation. We spend vast sums building court houses, paying judges, clerks and others and the product in justice is disproportionate to the plant and working force. There is no country in the world where the doing of justice is burdened by such heavy overhead charges. It all causes an enormous waste of time on the part of witnesses, jury panel and parties."

"The ease with which admission to the bar is secured in many jurisdictions and the attraction of a career which affords a living without manual labor has crowded the bar with more lawyers than are necessary. Of the 114,000 lawyers in the United States a very considerable part are not needed. If that business were conducted like the business of any great industrial or transportation company which is striving for the highest efficiency at the least cost in order to compete successfully with its rivals, a very considerable percentage of the 114,000 would be discharged."

"Why do these defects exist in our administration of justice? The American people are not quarrelsome or litigious. They are good natured, practical, simple and direct in their methods, respectful of law and honest in their dealings. Our Bar as a whole is courageous, loyal and true and able. I think the underlying cause is that unconsciously we all treat the business of administering justice as something to be done for private benefit instead of for the public service."

Mr. Root admitted that our back law should be re-drafted but, he added, none but a prophet or seer could do it and none such was available. Committees on judicial reform will report tomorrow morning and Mr. Root's address may form part of the basis of these reports.

Stephen S. Gregory, of Illinois, former president of the association, will preside at the evening session today. Former President Frederick W. Lehmann of Missouri will preside tomorrow morning and former President Henry St. George Tucker of Virginia tomorrow evening.

The meeting will close with the annual dinner of the association Friday night.

Clearfield People Should Act in Time

If you suffer from backache. If you have headaches, dizzy spells; If the kidney secretions are irregular.

Don't delay—likely your kidneys are sick.

Clearfield people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's a Clearfield woman's experience: Mrs. W. L. Hall, 107 Merril Street, Clearfield, says: I suffered from severe backaches and headaches and spells of dizziness. I used Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and they gave me splendid relief.

(Statement given June 23, 1912.)

A PERMANENT CURE.

On December 7, 1915, Mrs. Hall said "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as ever. They made a lasting cure in my case."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hall has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y.

OUR EARLY SHOWING

We are now exhibiting a limited number of New Fall Suits and Coats. The styles illustrated in this advertisement are only two of the charming styles we are now prepared to show.

MANY NEW NOTES IN THE STYLES FOR FALL AND WINTER.

We are now exhibiting a limited number of New Fall Suits and Coats. The styles illustrated in this advertisement are only two of the charming styles we are now prepared to show.

IN SUITS.

there are the plain tailored effects, the outing or sports designs and the dressier models.

Jackets are either single or double breasted. In many of them there is a pronounced flare or ripple below the waist.

The sport or outing models have simple sleeves and pleats or belts at waist line.

Some of the dressier models have large collars that either button close or lie flat, giving the shoulder cape effect. High collars, fancy flaring cuffs and partial belts are other features to be found in the new suits. Price range of suits from $12.00 to $35.00.

IN COATS.

A wide range of types make the coats for Fall interesting to every figure. In the coats as in the suits are three approved types. The loose coats with sweeping fullness, large roomy sleeves and generous cuffs and collars. Then the belted type hanging full and loose in the back. Some are belted only in the back and others all around. This type also has the large cuffs and collars.

The third type of coat hangs straight and loose from the shoulders giving the graceful long line from the waist down.

Buttons large and small and fur trimmings are seen in both coats and suits.

Price range of coats are from $5 to $30.

LEITZINGER BROTHERS

THE CHAMPION RED SOX.

It was freely predicted in the early season that without the services of Tris Speaker the Red Sox would fail to get anywhere. But the Carrigans knew that predictions didn't secure pennants so they started out to win enough games to turn the trick.

The pitching of Ernie Shore, called "The Shore Line to Pennantville," has been gilt-edged this season. Barring accident, Shore should prove a world beater from now on to the grand finale.

During the fifteen years Boston has been in the American league its team has won four pennants and three world's championships. The team has won every world's series in which it has taken part.

In 1906 the Red Sox established an American league record by losing 20 consecutive games.

The Red Sox have finished in the cellar but once and in the second division only three times. They finished last in 1906, seventh in 1907 and fifth in 1908.

Season records indicate that the Red Sox are weak in batting, run-getting and base stealing. This three ply weakness, however, has not prevented the Carrigans from setting the pace in the pennant scramble.

The Red Sox share with the Athletics the record of the longest game ever played in the major leagues. On September 1, 1906, the two teams battled 24 innings before the Athletics finally won the contest by a vote of 4 to 1.

Third Baseman Larry Gardner is the only member of the Red Sox who is batting with the 200 set of American league wallpops.

Harry Hooper the brilliant Red Sox guarder leads the team in both run getting and base-stealing. Hooper is the only Sox among the first fifteen American leaguers in both run getting and base-stealing.

Jack Barry is the leading new player with the Carrigans. Barry was a member of five different winning teams—four in Philadelphia and one in Boston.

Manager Bill Carrigan joined the Red Sox in 1906. The next year he was sent to Toronto and in 1908 was recalled by the Sox. He succeeded Jake Stahl as manager of the team July 25, 1910.

After the concluding game with the Browns in Boston on August 31, the Red Sox will start on their final trip around the Eastern and Western circuits, returning to Boston on September 27 for the opening of the season, four with the Yankees and three with the Athletics.

The Red Sox are generally credited with possessing the greatest pitching staff in the American league. Shore, Ruth, Mays, Leonard and Foster form a twirling staff second to none in big league company.

Nine managers have held the Red Sox reins since the team broke into the American league fifteen years ago. The list includes Jimmy Collins, "Chick" Stahl, Bob Unglaub, Jim McGuire, George Huff, Fred Lake, Pat Donovan, J. G. (Jake) Stahl, and Bill Carrigan.

PICKINGS RATHER SLIM FOR SCOUTS THIS YEAR

By Hamilton.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Aug. 30.—With races in the big leagues fast drawing to a close managers are looking toward prospects for next year, with the class of new playing talent picked up in the minors holding an important place.

Every year word comes to the east of phenomenal ball players in the minors. Usually these are taken up, and sometimes they make good. More often than not, however, they are sent back. This year, perhaps more than any recent season, there is a dearth of good playing talent in the minors.

Purchases up to the present have been very few and only players of extraordinary ability have been picked off by the scouts. Some of these already have reported while others are being held for delivery at the opening of the training season next year.

The big minors, the American association, the International league and the Pacific Coast league will supply the greatest amount of real material, as usual. In the lower leagues the percentage of ball players who look promising is remarkably low.

In the American association, there are a number of ball players who look like real finds. Among these is pitcher Nick Carter, purchased from Indianapolis by the Cubs for early delivery. Carter is a big right hander who was held by the Cleveland Americans at the beginning of the present season. He turned out to be a apolis with hardly a trial. He was the best pitcher in the association this year.

Outfielder Josh Kell was another Indianapolis player taken by the Cubs and there is a probability that Pitcher Victor Aldridge of the Indians also will be snapped up.

Kansas City has sent Chuck Wortman to the Cubs, Jimmy Middleton, former hurler for Louisville, has been sent to the Giants, and infielder Joe Leonard of the Columbus club has reported to Cleveland.

Minneapolis and Washington are carrying on their usual exchange with a trial for Earl Yindling and Mike Menosky being assured. Mike Regan, star hurler for Kansas City, is certain to make a trip to the majors, and Pitcher Pierce of Toledo may get another chance.

In the Coast league there is a wealth of good material. Portland offers Willie and Southworth, outfielders; Louis Guisto, first baseman, and Allen Sothron, pitcher. Guisto has been sold to Cleveland. Oakland has Martin, a pitcher. Salt Lake has First Baseman Bunny Brief and Pitcher Fittery. Los Angeles offers Catcher Bassler, Pitcher Horstmann and Outfielder Wolter.

Vernon has three stars in infielders McGaffigan, Risberg and Bates. Of the trio McGaffigan is the least likely to go. He is an excellent fielder, but his disposition on the diamond handicaps him greatly.

The International league is mainly populated with players from the majors under optional agreement. A large number of these, including Urban Shocker, sensational Toronto hurler, have been recalled. In fact Donovan almost wrecked several clubs by recalling many of his youngsters when the Yankees were so badly crippled. Howard Ehmke is certain to be given a thorough trial, as is Pitcher McGigue. Ehmke will go to Detroit.

Paddy Sign and Jimmie Smith, two Pirate farmhands, remarkable fielders but poor stickers, will have another chance.

TO DIVULGE SUFFRAGE

Atlantic City, Aug. 30.—

there are surprises in store for those who have been laboring under the illusion that the southern states as a whole, are opposed to granting the ballot to women.

President Wilson and Mr. Hughes have been invited to address the convention, considered the most important ever called in the suffrage history of the country. Its specific purpose is to determine the political policy which the National Woman Suffrage Association—a strictly non-partisan body—will follow during the coming fall campaign.

GERMAN BAPTISTS AT DETROIT.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 30.—The triennial general conference of the German Baptist churches of North America opened here today with a good attendance, those present including delegates from many parts of the United States and Canada, together with prominent mission workers from foreign fields. The conference meets in the Woodland Avenue Baptist church, with the Rev. L. Kaiser, of the Rochester Theological Baptist seminary, presiding as moderator. The sessions will continue until September 5. The program is exhaustive, embracing all departments of the work of the denomination with liberal time designated for reports from missionary and evangelical work. One of the important matters scheduled for consideration is the decision regarding the location for the new orphan asylum which is now at Louisville, Ky. St. Joseph, Mich., appears to be the choice of the majority of the delegates as the location for the institution.

Mrs. J. K. Murray of Le Contes Mills was shopping in town today.

G. E. Beauseigneur of Le Contes Mills attended to business in town yesterday.

Miss Flora Mauer left this morning to spend her vacation with friends in Somerset.

Mrs. James B. Graham and daughter Margaret of Bigler are attending the Sunday school convention.

CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. F. C. Whitlock, leaves today for her home in Elkton, Md., after spending five weeks with her daughter, Mrs. James S. Stover, on Meadow street.

Miss Bessie Clark, daughter of Policeman Clark, is taking in the sights at Niagara Falls and other towns along the lakes.

Mrs. Amanda A. Laing and her sister, Mrs. Amelia Meis, who lives at West Decatur, will leave Thursday for a visit with relatives at Morgantown, W. Va. Their visit will extend into the middle of September.

Paul Robison left yesterday morning for Philadelphia and will remain in the city of "Brotherly Love" until about the middle of next week.

Mrs. Wm. Holden, Miss Lou, her daughter, and son William, returned home Monday from a week's visit in Pittsburgh, Wilkesburg and other towns in close proximity to the "Smoky City." The family enjoyed their outing to its fullest extent.

A six cylinder Buick auto turned upside down on the Grampian road last evening, when about half way up the hill. There were six persons in the car, but fortunately all escaped without injury. The car was righted and the occupants went on their way rejoicing that they escaped so luckily.

Street Commissioner Strunk is hard at work constructing a good, substantial sidewalk from the foot of the hill along the Grampian road, an improvement that was greatly needed by pedestrians who wended their way in that direction.

Once again the unseen hand, Death, has entered this community and taken from a home a beloved wife, in the person of Mrs. Vada Hummel, wife of Alton Hummel, whose spirit took flight from its earthly tabernacle on Monday night at 12:20 o'clock at her home on Irvin Hill, surrounded as she was by those who loved her. Mrs. Hummel was taken to Clearfield hospital early last week, but as the physicians there saw no hope for her, she was brought home last Saturday and provided with every comfort until the end. Deceased was the second daughter of Taylor and Annie Bloom, and was born near Bloomington, in Pike township, September 26th, 1876. She was married to Alton Hummel in December, 1890 and they went to house keeping out on the farm now owned by Samuel Norris, but after a few years they removed to the house in which she resided at the time she was called from. Her husband was a well known farmer and stock raiser.

erlasting life to come. Early in life she enrolled her name as a member of the Presbyterian church at Pine Grove. She leaves a loving husband, who provided every comfort for her that was within his power. Her father and mother, and one sister survive to mourn her loss. The funeral will be held from the home on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Max Lantz, of the M. E. church, officiating. Interment will be made in Bloomington cemetery in the family plot.

WOOLGROWERS IN SESSION.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 30.—An exhibition and sale of half a million dollars' worth of wools is to feature the fifty-third annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' association, which assembled in this city today.

Several thousand picked animals are to be offered at public auction, including representatives from the ranges of England, Austria, New Zealand, South America, Canada and the United States.

The business sessions of the convention will continue several days. A wide variety of problems affecting the sheepmen from the best represented parts of the country will be discussed. Just how different ranges are adapted to particular kinds of sheep will be determined and the best ways of grazing, wintering, shearing and dipping will be brought out. Methods of marketing sheep products, railroad tariffs and shipping rates also will be discussed.

Where the air is clean and cool.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND VETERANS MARCH IN KANSAS CITY TODAY

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 30.—Fifteen thousand grizzled fighters of the Civil War marched over the downtown section today in the annual Grand Army of the Republic parade.

With a score of fife and drum corps bending time and brass bands playing national airs, the gray haired veterans moved slowly over the line which included many hills.

The streets were thronged with spectators who cheered each state contingent as it passed and the veterans doffed their hats and saluted almost continuously.

W. F. Calhoun, commander of the Department of Illinois, and his state organization headed the procession, followed by the Wisconsin and Pennsylvania Departments. The Ohio and New York veterans were next in line. Then followed the Southern and the Western Departments. Missouri brought up the rear.

As the parade swung into Main street there were many stragglers but they fought bravely to pass on in review before their commander in chief, Elias R. Manford of Cincinnati, and his staff and city officials who occupied the reviewing stand.

Mrs. J. T. Straw spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Stewart Williams of Monmouth.

Mrs. Hobart Callahan entertained at five hundred on Thursday afternoon at her home on Reed street in honor of Mrs. Chester Heller and Mrs. Frank Grundy of Jersey City.

Marion Leroy Burton, president of Smith College, born at Brooklyn, Pa., 42 years ago today.

Thomas G. Seaton, pitcher of the Chicago National league baseball team, born at Blair, Neb., 27 years ago today.

William D. Peritt, pitcher for the New York National league baseball team, born at Arcadia, La., 24 years ago today.
